

Representative John M. Frullo

Texas House District: 84

Arts and Cultural Grants

Listed by Texas House District

Fiscal Year 2016

Ballet Lubbock

Arts Create $4,500
To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in the operations of this arts organization.

Broadway Festivals

Cultural District Project - High Quality Arts Programming $25,000
To support the 4th on Broadway Celebration, a three-day regional art festival that attracts people from 200-mile radius to the Lubbock Cultural District to celebrate Independence Day.

Charles Adams Studio Project

Cultural District Project - Enhancements to the District $25,000
To support enhancements to the Lubbock Cultural District by artfully landscaping the outdoor space surrounding the CASP Minimalist Studios on the city block of 5th Street and Avenue J creating a place where visitors can sit in the shade and enjoy changing public art in the heart of the district.

Civic Lubbock

 Arts Create - Subgranting $6,500
To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in subgranting for arts activities conducted by organizations within the community served by the subgranter.

Knowledge Center, Inc.

Arts Respond Performance Support $1,404
Artistic fee subsidy for History in Person to give five school performances targeting fifth graders in Lubbock, September 15-17, 2015.

Arts Respond Performance Support $583
Artistic fee subsidy for Hope Shiver to perform as Sojourner Truth at four different Lubbock area elementary schools on January 14-15, 2016. 25% or more of the audiences expected to be served live below the poverty line and are at-risk youth.

 Indicates a block grant that will be matched and distributed in the community by grant recipient.

Louise Hopkins Underwood Center for the Arts

Arts Create $9,500

To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in the operations of this arts organization.

Arts Respond Economic Development $1,000

To support the costs of the Flatland Film Festival, encouraging cultural tourism in the South Plains area of Texas.

Arts Respond Performance Support $1,650

Artistic fee subsidy for Michael (Mr. Blue Shoes) Dyson to perform once for elementary school students and once for middle school students in Lubbock on March 10, 2016. 25% or more of the audiences expected to be served live below the poverty line and are at-risk youth.

Cultural District Project - Enhancements to the District $100,000

To support enhancements to the Lubbock Cultural District with the addition of an outdoor stage on LHUCA Plaza to allow for concert, plays, dance performances, films, and more which will add vibrancy and interest to the downtown district area.

Lubbock Arts Alliance

Arts Create $9,500

To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in the operations of this arts organization.

Arts Respond Economic Development $2,500

To support Take in the Local Color, a studio tour event that provides access to the fine arts and provides a visible forum for local and regional artists and performers in the Lubbock Cultural District.

Arts Respond Performance Support $2,250

Artistic fee subsidy for Mexico 2000 Ballet Folklórico to perform on April 15-16, 2016 at the 38th Annual Lubbock Arts Festival. Three performances will be held for school children and one for the general public. 25% or more of the audiences expected to be served are at-risk youth.

Arts Respond Performance Support $1,394

Artistic fee subsidy for John Erickson to perform on April 17, 2016 at the 38th Annual Lubbock Arts Festival.

Arts Respond Public SafetyCriminal Justice $4,500

To support afterschool performing and visual arts classes for at-risk youth ages 6-13 at the Guadalupe-Parkway Centers in Lubbock.

Cultural District Project - High Quality Arts Programming $50,000

To support the Lubbock Arts Festival, a three-day art event featuring innovative visual art exhibitions, 150 artists from around the nation selling their artwork from booths, demonstrating artists, music, and more that will attract visitors to the Lubbock Cultural District.

Designated Funding- Texas Women for the Arts $7,500

Support for ARTadventures!, an art education outreach program for low-income and minority children.

Lubbock Symphony Orchestra

Arts Create $13,500

To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in the operations of this arts organization.

Arts Respond Education $6,500

To support educational orchestra performances for 5th-12th grade students in west Texas.

Cultural District Project - High Quality Arts Programming $15,000

To support the North American Saxophone Alliance Biennial Conference, a national conference that will attract hundreds of professional performers, university professors, teachers, students and saxophone enthusiasts to the Lubbock Cultural District.

Texas Association for Symphony Orchestras

Arts Respond Economic Development $850

To support the annual conference in Amarillo that gathers representatives from symphonies across the state for professional development, networking, and musical performances.

Arts Respond Public SafetyCriminal Justice $1,000

To support the Juanita Miller Concerto Competition, a statewide music competition for high school students.

Youth Orchestras of Lubbock

Arts Create $7,500

To advance the creative economy of Texas by investing in the operations of this arts organization.

Number of Awards: 23

Award Total: $297,131